

You will hear a news segment of a radio broadcast in which three different people talk about some educational aspects.

TASK

Choose which speaker said each statement from the list (A-J) .

- |   |   |              |
|---|---|--------------|
| A) This situation results in fewer employment opportunities and greater social exclusion.                                       | → | Speaker ____ |
| B) It offers resources tailored to the specific needs of each student.  | → | Speaker ____ |
| C) Teachers require some training to incorporate it effectively.  | → | Speaker ____ |
| D) There is some progress but millions of children still face learning inequalities.  | → | Speaker ____ |
| E) This aspect makes lessons more interactive and captivating.  | → | Speaker ____ |
| F) In both poor and affluent countries, economic and social inequalities hinder students' performance.                          | → | Speaker ____ |
| G) It is worse in those areas, where the distance to schools and lack of resources create major obstacles.                      | → | Speaker ____ |
| H) Scholarships, investments in infrastructure, and gender equality initiatives contribute to a more just and thriving society. | → | Speaker ____ |
| I) This issue is rising due to factors like poverty, lack of motivation, and family responsibilities.                           | → | Speaker ____ |
| J) Not all schools and students can afford this type of resource.   | → | Speaker ____ |